

Jay Reinke currently works as one of four AFL-CIO Community Service Liaisons for the Milwaukee Area Labor Council in partnership with the United Way of Greater Milwaukee and Waukesha County and is a member of AFSCME Local 1954. Jay's responsibilities include the Labor Council's African American Community Leadership Summit, Health and Hygiene Drive, Blanket Drive, as well as being the Labor Representative to the Human Trafficking Task Force of Greater Milwaukee as the Co-Chair of the Legislative and Policy Committee.

Mr. Reinke has many other ties to the community where he currently serves as a Commissioner on The Lynde and Harry Bradley Technology and Trade High School and serves on the United Way's Sexual Violence Prevention Committee. One of Jay's proudest achievements has been being a "Big Brother" since 2007. In November of 2014, Jay and his "Little Brother" were named the Male Match of the Year for Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Metro Milwaukee and the following month they both received the "Excellence in Education" award from the Milwaukee Public School Board for their commitment to "Little D's" educational journey.

Jay Reinke is also a proud member of the United Auto Workers since 1979 where he last held the International Union appointed position as Joint Training and Human Resource Development Representative for UAW Local 438.
